

Freedom Factory Apprentice

various locations - £10-15 per hour

Job description

Working with one or two lead teachers you will be required to work with a group of children and young people ranging from 7 to 16 years. You will be assisting in the smooth running of the factory sessions which involve streetdance and hip-hop, singing and songwriting taught in a fun, fresh and engaging way. You will follow lesson plans, take direction from the lead teacher(s) and provide sessions that reflect the Freedom Factory ethos.

Aims of the position

The aim of a Freedom Factory Apprentice is to enable the teacher to run the factories effectively and be an additional experienced individual to help teach the children.

Range of responsibilities

- Understand the session plan for the day.
- Take part in dancing and singing sessions.
- Take direction from the teacher(s) about the focus for your session.
- Deal appropriately with children and young people who may share information with you.

Skills & abilities

- Training in all styles of commercial dance.
- Good standard of choreographic skills.
- Good standard of singing.

Personal qualities

- Good timekeeping.
- Personable and approachable.
- Able to take direction and act appropriately.
- Open to learning from the teachers.